CONGRESS, WITH IRE RAISED, GOES ON WITH PROGRAM

Showers Criticism Upon The White House, After A Rebuke

SHOWDOWN IS WAITING

Senate and House Exchange
Relief Measures; Total
Many Millions.

By William K. Hutchinson
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A belligerent Congress, smarting under Presidential rebuke and showering criticism on the White House, went forward today with its own program for relief of unemployment and agricultural distress.

The Senate and House exchanged relief measures, the Senate receiving a $110,000,000 measure passed by the House to accelerate Federal construction while the House received the Senate's $60,000,000 feed, seed and food loan bill to relieve agricultural distress. The fate of the House bill was in some doubt, since the hostile Senate may refuse to turn any funds over to Mr. Hoover for lump sum expenditure by the Treasury Department.

The Senate meanwhile faced a showdown on Mr. Hoover's declaration against any increase by the youthful Senator LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin who would put the Senate on record as favoring increased taxes for the relief of "human suffering in this emergency," despite White House influence to the contrary. LaFollette's resolution was the endorsement of numerous Democratic leaders and may revive the old Democratic-Insurgent coalition that has battled Republican Administrations for the last ten years.

The resolution read:
"Whereas, Millions of American citizens are in destitute circumstances due to unemployment and face privation and suffering, and

"Whereas, The President of the United States, in a public statement, has indicated that consideration for the interests of income taxpayers necessitates restriction on Governmental relief measures necessary to aid the jobless and their dependants, now therefore,

"Be It Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate of the United States that the relief of human suffering in this emergency should take precedence over the consideration of the interests of wealthy income taxpayers."

Benjamin Brown Dies Suddenly at Tullytown

TULLYTOWN, Dec. 10.—Benjamin Brown, 65, of this borough, died suddenly this morning of a heart attack, while at work for the Brennan Sand Company, here.

The man, who with others, was engaged in digging moulding sand, remarked to his co-workers that he had evidently been digging too fast as he felt rather weak. Finding a seat upon a bank where he might rest, Brown slipped to the ground dead. He had been at work about two hours.

A physician was summoned, and the man being pronounced dead, Deputy Coroner W. Furman Young was called.

Brown is survived by his wife and children. He had made Tullytown his home for years.

DRIVER OF CAR ON TRIAL FOR CRASH

Charles Simons, of Philadelphia, Charged With Aggravated Assault and Battery

WITNESSES ARE HEARD

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 10.—Judge Keller yesterday charged the jury in the case of Charles Simons, Jr., twenty-four, of 2310 Frankford avenue, Philadelphia, a chemist, who is charged with aggravated assault and battery and assault and battery by automobile on the Lincoln Highway opposite the Hillside Inn, Bensalem township, last June.

The arrest followed a three-car collision on the highway in which eight people were injured and treated at the Frankford Hospital. The prosecutor in the case is Michael Komorsky, a banker, of 4675 Adams avenue, Philadelphia, who was taking his family to New York City preparatory to their sailing for Europe, when the accident happened.

Highway Patrolman McAtee, South Langhorne, testified that he was summoned to the scene of the accident. He said that he smelled what he believed to be alcoholic liquor on Simon's breath. The officer also testified that the doctors at Frankford Hospital refused to examine Simon as to his sobriety because he did not care to come to court in Doylestown. McAtee said that in his opinion, Simons was not in a fit condition to drive a car.

Michael Komorsky, the prosecutor, testified that he was driving on the Lincoln Highway in the direction of Trenton, when he saw the defendant's car coming toward him, strike another car that he (Komorsky) was trailing and then come across the road on an angle and strike his car after he (Komorsky) had stopped his own car.

Arthur P. Coyne, a Park Guard, testified that Simons told him he was driving the car.

Mrs. Helen Komorsky, wife of the prosecutor and Conrad Komorsky, a son, who is a French teacher at Temple University, described the accident as they saw it from their father's car. Both were injured. Conrad said he saw the two-car crash in front of them and then saw Simons' car hit them.

Ralph DeLuca, of Philadelphia, who was driving the car that Komorsky was trailing, called as a Commonwealth witness, testified that he saw the Simons car coming toward him, diagonally across the highway and sideswipe his car. Then he heard a crash in the rear, he said, together with women screaming.

"WS" WIN OUT IN COUNCIL

By "The Stroller"
It is interesting to note the various trades and crafts which are represented in Borough Council and also the various names of those who sit in the Borough legislative body.

There appears to be a special fondness for names beginning with the letter "W". No less than six councilmen begin to write their names with the letter "W".

There are Wagner, Williams, Winter, Warner, Winslow and now the newest and the baby member, Wichser.

All councilmen from the first ward begin their names with "W"—Wagner, Williams and Winter—and two of the three from the second ward use the same letter for the beginning of their family names. They are Warner and Wichser.

Three councilmen have the letter "S" for the first letter in their names: Schmidt, Spezzano, Satterthwaite.

The balance of the names begin with M, V, F, B, D, J and Z.

FOUR DAMAGE SUITS STARTED IN COURT

Two of the Actions Are Filed Against Motorists

CHILD, WOMAN HURT

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 10.—Four damage suits, two of which were alleged to be the results of careless and negligent operating of automobiles, have been filed in the office of the Prothonotary.

Aaron M. High, Pipersville, has entered a damage suit for $750 against Susan M. Myers. The plaintiff avers that while his son, Walter, age seven years, waited for an opportunity to cross the Easton highway near his home, was run down without warning and struck and hurled sixty feet. After the accident the car skidded off the highway into a fence, which also resulted in a damage case of $36.

Alex Dixon, Jr., has been sued for damage amounting to $45. The plaintiffs in this case are Walter Sykes, and his wife, who was injured so that her earning capacity was impaired, and spent large sums for medical attention.

Sykes, the possessor of a cabriolet, and his wife, were riding west on Roosevelt Boulevard, and say that a truck, driven by Dixon, carelessly operated, ran into the rear of their car.

The Lupus Building and Loan Association, Philadelphia, alleges that I. L. Nice, who is engaged in the lumber industry, entered without the consent of the plaintiff association, on a tract of timber land, Warrington township, removing the standing timber and depreciating the value of the real estate to the extent of $2500.

The North Lebanon Shoe Factory, Newtown, has started suit for book account against Walter Hambrecht. The damages in this suit amount to $92.

Advance Ticket Sale For Show Quite Large

The advance sale of tickets for the cabaret-minstrel entertainment to be given tonight and tomorrow night in the high school auditorium by the Mothers' and Fathers' Associations, has been quite large and it is expected a big crowd will be in attendance when the curtain rises tonight at 8.30 o'clock.

The show will undoubtedly be one of the best of its kind ever held in Bristol. By an unique plan, a demonstration will be given of the broad-casting of a musical performance from a cabaret club on Broadway, New York. People have often sat before the radio in their homes, and listened to such broadcasting, but tonight and tomorrow night, a practical demonstration may be seen at the entertainment.

The Fathers' Association Orchestra of Joseph Martini has been practicing for sometime and Mr. Martini feels the members have reached a place of efficiency, that will give those in attendance a big surprise, and make them feel proud that Bristol should have such an accomplished musical organization. The orchestra will give a recital between 8 and 8.30 o'clock each evening.

Following is the program:

"When You're Smiling" and "Cheer Up," group; "Somewhere in Old Wyoming," John H. Brehm; "Just a Little Closer, Dear," Mrs. H. Stoneback; selection, Mr. MacArthur; dancing number, Miss Tracy; "When It's Springtime in the Rockies," Mrs. David Neill; "Here Comes the Sun," Mr. P. Ford; double duet; selection, Miss McBrien; selection, "Can This Be Love?" Mrs. R. Johnson; dancing number, Mrs. Thiel; "My Guitar and You," Harry Smith; "Wedding Bells Are Ringing For Sally," Mrs. G. Miller; "Sing Something Simple," Mr. C. Rathke; "When the Organ Played at Twilight," Mrs. F. S. Parr; dancing number, "The Song Without a Name," Mrs. C. Bowen; finale, "Betty Coed" and "Good Night Ladies."

Central Charity Committee Will Meet This Evening

A meeting of the Central Charity Committee has been called for this evening in the Community House, Dorrance and Cedar streets, at 8 o'clock.

The president of the organization, Burgess Clifford L. Anderson, requests a full attendance at the meeting so that there can be a discussion of the problems which will confront the committee during the present winter.

Every church, lodge and organization is requested to have a representative present.

One of the principal things which the committee attempts to do is to prevent duplication in giving relief and thus see that as many worthy families as possible are given the relief needed and that all of the charity is not given to a few.

BIRTH

MRS. WALTER JACKSON HONOR GUEST AT SHOWER

Affair Which Was A Surprise
Was Held at Dunlap
Residence

PLEASANT SOCIAL TIME

HULMEVILLE, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Walter Jackson was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower at the residence of Mrs. Richard Dunlap, Park avenue, last evening, the hostesses of the evening being Mrs. Dunlap and her sister, Miss Adeline E. Reetz.

Arriving at the Dunlap home where the Peppy Pals sewing class of which she is a member was scheduled to meet, Mrs. Jackson found a number of friends awaiting her arrival, and a pleasant social time arranged.

The honored one, who will be remembered as Miss Margaret W. Smith, was asked to follow instructions found in short poems attached to streamers of pink crepe paper, and in this manner were gifts from her friends located. The streamers led from a bowl of pink and white carnations in the center of which was placed a miniature bride and groom. The paper ribbons were stretched out over the table, and falling over the sides of same, made a most attractive display.

At a late hour the group was invited to the dining-room where refreshments were served. The table was attractive in decorations of pink and green crepe paper festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table; while from the lighting fixture was suspended a small umbrella fashioned of pink paper roses. Favors were chocolate finger rings, covered with gold-colored paper and set with brilliants.

Those present were: Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Dunlap, Miss Reetz, Mrs. C. W. Haefer, Mrs. George Ahlee, Mrs. Hugh B. Webster, Misses Myrtle Egly, Marie Hanson, Elma E. Haefer, Mrs. Harold Daseburg, Miss Grace H. Illick, Miss Clara L. Illick, of Hulmeville; Mrs. William Brady, of Bristol; and Miss Ruth Lister, of Philadelphia.

STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

NORRISTOWN, Dec. 10.—A reproduction of a Colonial forge, adjacent to the ruins of the original forge, will be constructed at Valley Forge Park in the near future. A resolution declaring the site a proper one has been adopted by the park commission and condemnation proceedings to acquire the land have been begun.

The site of the forge which gave the locality its name was, for years, a matter of dispute. Tradition placed the site at a point established last year, but many historians lacked belief in the authenticity of word-of-mouth locations. Search disclosed a

QUICK WORK BY POLICE RESULTS IN ARREST OF 3

Bristol Chief and Officer Act
On Tip and Capture
Lads

TWO ADMIT GUILT

Caught Near Tullytown and Then Turned Over to State Police

Quick police work on the part of Bristol Police last night resulted in an arrest of three Trenton youths accused of robbing the store of George Zarr, Bridgewater.

The youths after being taken into custody were turned over to State Police, Morrisville barracks. They are being held until such time as the district attorney can be communicated with.

The boys give their names as follows:

William Ferry, 12, 42 Cove street.
Stanley Karpowicz, 15, 920 Liberty street.
Louis Ivestro, 15, 543 Roehling avenue.

Yesterday afternoon between one and two o'clock the Zarr store, Bridgewater, just the other side of the Creek, was entered, the cash register opened and a sum of money taken. Six packages of cigarettes were also stolen.

The robbery was discovered by Mr. Zarr when he returned from Bristol. It is customary to close the Zarr store from one until two each day, during the lunch hour.

Entrance had been gained to the store through a rear window, the lock of which was defective.

The robbery was reported to the State Police, Morrisville.

Last night at about nine o'clock, Officer Perry, of the Bristol police force, was patrolling Mill street. A conductor on one of the trolley cars of the Trenton, Bristol & Philadelphia Street Railway Company, asked the officer if he had heard of a robbery at Bridgewater. The officer replied "no."

"Well, I let three boys off the car at Edgely just a few minutes ago and I believe they are the boys," said the conductor.

Ferry communicated at once with headquarters but no report of the robbery had been received here at Bristol. Chief Jones ordered Perry to come to headquarters at once and the officer and the chief made a quick run up the pike in the police car. Near Tullytown the boys were found walking along the road. They were taken into custody.

On return to the Municipal Building here the lads were questioned and two of them admitted their guilt and told how the Zarr store had been entered. Karpowicz refused to admit that the three had in any way been implicated in the robbery.

After committing the robbery the boys "thumbed" their way into Philadelphia and part of the way back. Then they used the trolley car as far as Edgely. Just why they left the car at Edgely has not been established.

The quick action of Perry and Chief Jones resulted in the arrest of the boys and the clearing up of the case.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

(WITH "MERRY")

Our Double Duties

NOT only my own shopping do I have to attend to, but other members of the family seem to delight in asking me to make trips to some of the Bristol stores for them. They know I get quite a "kick" out of the job, too, so I really believe they think they're doing me a favor. I have a splendid report to make to brother Dave in regard to the Cinderella "bubble-action" vacuum washer, which he is considering buying for Janet. It will help so much with the baby's wash, and will pay for itself many times. Profy's Radio Shop is selling cylindrical washers which weigh only 19 pounds, and are 18 inches high. The Cinderella holds three gallons of water, and is made of rust-resistant iron. And the capacity—why, just think, 29 ordinary-sized pieces, besides a double sheet and two pillow cases. Dave is going down to see it tonight, and I just know Mr. Profy will have made a sale.

These Gifts Will Be Used

Rayon fabrics are so durable that I decided for some of the girls this year I would select pajamas of this material. My initial trip to Esther Bruner's Shop, Mill street, since December arrived, was a most interesting one, for there I found several lovely gift suggestions. And the pajamas shown by the saleswoman were in very good color combinations, and dainty in every detail. Two that took my eye at first glance, and which I finally selected, will surely be used, and for a long time. One is in green and white, a broad green piece being set down the front and back of the blouse part. This pair also has a little white pocket at the right of the waist, and both pairs are sleeveless. The second set is of a tan and brown combination, with more intricate trimming. And best of all they launder so nicely, and the makers of most of the rayon articles suggest that an iron not be used on them. And that does save work, too.

Do you know, there is one thing I wouldn't forget for the world, and I attended to that matter yesterday before I spent all my money on Christmas shopping. And that is—a Christmas fund. I've deposited money each week in the Christmas Club at the Farmers National Bank for years, and yesterday I started the 1931 card. It means so much, not only to me, but to so many others I know. It is safe to say that many people wouldn't have nearly as happy a Christmas if they were not helped to save systematically by the Farmers Bank. Those 50 weeks will roll around swiftly and then there will be waiting for me a dandy check that will provide for next year's gift searching.

"Bill" Levinson is to be thanked for supplying Christmas gifts for many smokers of Bristol. At his Mill street

FOR FATHER

So many families worry about what to give Father for Christmas. Just why this should be it is impossible to say when Father is so easy to please and there are so many suitable gifts for him.

For example, he might be given a new doormat for the one that is six years old. Or a sofa cushion to match the cushion now on the sofa. Then there is the shade on the bedside lamp in the guest room that the last guest scorched by tilting to one side. A new one would be suitable for Father.

Father would delight in a nice wood basket to sit beside the open fireplace and enthrall over a dozen glass tumblers to replace those broken during the last year. He would surely find much use for a new monkey wrench and a pair of pliers and a saw, and he would get as much benefit as anybody else from a nice new aluminum roaster.

Why not a spare tire for the car and a new pair of gloves to use when he goes down to the furnace? Or, for that matter, a rug for the living room or a new set of shades for the dining-room lights or a brass nozzle for the garden hose, since there seems no longer any chance of the old one turning up? Why not a cover for the telephone book or a flashlight that could be kept in the kitchen so that the cook can find her way to the icebox? Or a vacuum cleaner or a new electric iron?

Surely he could not object to a new clothes hamper, or a potted plant for a centerpiece on the dining-room table, or new shades for the front hall, or an electric coffee pot or a tea tray. In fact, you have only to look at any room in the house to see at once a dozen things that Father needs and needs badly.

If these gifts have the appearance of being a trifle impersonal, the fault can be readily corrected by the addition of a jar of smoking tobacco or a box of cigars or a necktie or two for good measure, marked "With love, from Santa Claus."

WHAT MAKES PROSPERITY

Prosperity means good business, and good business means active buying. Buying moves in a circle.

There are four factors in the circle of buying—the manufacturer, the jobber, the retailer and the buyer. Together these factors constitute the public. The manufacturer, the jobber or retailer is in a separate class from the buyer only so far as his business is concerned. In every other relation in life he is one small individual in the great mass called the public, and he is affected by the same living conditions that affect the latter. Outside his own business he, too, is a buyer, so he joins with the public in starting the buying impulse that sweeps around the circle. He buys the comforts and necessities of life, and he wants reasonable prices the same as the public does.

Not all Bristol merchants are using the local papers to unload their shelves. But it can be depended upon that the ones who are, are the ones who are anxious to join hands with the public in bringing about prosperity and keeping the community prosperous.

The newest Einstein theory nobody understands is that raising money is easy.

Congress, With Ire Raised, Goes On With Program

Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, immediately endorsed the resolution.

"I have received heavy correspondence from all over the country insisting upon increasing income taxes especially in the higher brackets to take care of this situation. The issuance of certificates would just carry it along a period. There should be an increase in the higher brackets to prevent persons with small incomes eventually paying the bill."

The Presidential declaration that much of the relief legislation sponsored in Capitol Hill represented an effort to "play politics at the expense of human misery," merely accentuated the demands for enactment of measures not recommended by Mr. Hoover.

Senator Black (D) of Alabama, sponsored one, calling for $100,000,000 to be divided among the states for road and bridge construction, without requiring like contribution from the states. Other Senators announced they would press for prompt action on other bills, despite presidential objection.

The President's own recommendation for a $150,000,000 emergency lump sum fund to spur Federal construction may be killed in the Senate. The house reduced the amount to $110,000,000 and the Senate may pigeonhole it, due to the President's censure of its own relief measures. There has been much opposition to his rather indefinite explanation of where this money would be sent.

Senator McKellar (D) of Tennessee, in starting opposition to the President's bill, demanded a specific program of expenditures.

"Why doesn't he use his brain," demanded McKellar, "or the brains of those under him, and present a definite program?"

NEWS BRIEFS

YEAGERTOWN, Dec. 10.—(INS).—A movement has been started here to present to the Carnegie Award Committee in Pittsburgh the names of Michael Soccio and Mrs. George Aurin, who saved the life of Mrs. George Ferguson and a son, George, when they broke through the ice on Kishacoquillas creek near here recently and were nearly drowned.

Soccio and Mrs. Aurin, hearing their cries, hastened to their aid and succeeded in pulling both Mrs. Ferguson and the boy from the stream.

Neighbors who witnessed the feat believe it worthy of a Carnegie medal and plans have been laid to submit the names of both rescuers.

CARLISLE, Dec. 10.—(INS).—Frank Mount Pleasant, famed old time athlete of the Carlisle Indian School and Dickinson college, is not dead.

Mount Pleasant wants that definitely understood. Recently, it was reported that he had died from a stomach ailment in a Minneapolis, Minn., hospital while engaged in secret service work. Many of his friends here were saddened at the news.

The reports finally reached Buffalo, N. Y., where Mount Pleasant, hale and hearty, after the first gasp of amazement, sat down and wrote Gilbert Malcomb, Dickinson treasurer, that like Mark Twain, the report of his death had been "greatly exaggerated."

who was in DeLuca's car, testified that he took several of the injured people to the hospital.

Called by the defense, Patrolman McAfee testified that the night on which the accident happened, the highway was damp and the night misty.

In his own defense, Simons told the jury that he was a total abstainer and that he never took a drink of intoxicating liquor in his entire life. He SHARKEY—At Newportville, Pa., December 8, 1930, Charles F., son of the late William and Ellen Sharkey, aged 65 years. Funeral from his late residence, Newportville, Friday, December 12th, at 9 a. m. testified that he and two other fellows and two girls were on a ride to Trenton and return.

"I saw the DeLuca car coming toward me and both of us dimmed our lights. My car and the DeLuca car sideswiped in some manner, and then I applied my brakes. My car skidded on the slippery highway and went across the road into a gutter. From six to ten seconds later the Komorsky car crashed into my car."

John Keegan, of 7135 N. 29th street, Philadelphia; Miss Claire Hocking, Philadelphia; Miss Ellen G. Kline, Philadelphia, and Thomas F. Bane, Philadelphia, who were with Simons, corroborated the testimony of Simons as to how the accident happened. They were all treated at the hospital.

Bensalem Board Meets in Session

Charles Jenks, tax collector, also made his report to the Board.

A statistical report of Supervising Principal Samuel K. Faust, showed an enrollment of 924 pupils in the schools of the township. The enrollment at Andalusia has increased six; Flushing, one; Hermitage, one; the Penn Valley school enrollment decreased one, and the high school lost two.

Seven were given permits to discontinue school and one was suspended from the high school.

It was reported to the Board that there appears to be an epidemic of chicken pox in the schools along the Bristol Pike, including Eddington, Cornwells Heights and Andalusia. The school nurse, Miss Frances M. Russell, is doing all possible to check a spread of the epidemic.

The next meeting of the Board falls on New Year's night, but it was agreed to postpone this meeting until some future evening.
